DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 45-65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The specification as originally filed has failed to disclose the newly cited claims recitations as follows:

The recitation of claim 45, the last 4 lines "a first data line driving circuit inputting a plurality of analog signals to the plurality of pixel transistors via the plurality of data lines; and a second data line driving circuit providing a plurality of digital signals to the plurality of data lines". The specification as filed does not teach one of ordinary skill in the art how to the data lines with both analog and digital signals.

The recitation of claim 54 the last 3 lines "a second data line driving circuit providing a plurality of second signals to the plurality of data lines, the first data line driving circuit having a different function from a function of the second data line driving circuit". The specification has failed the written description requirement as filed having two data driving circuits and these driving circuits having different function.

Thus, applicant's specification fails to enable one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of filing to practice applicant's invention.

The claim limitation of claim 64 the last 5 lines "where the plurality of first switches includes a first group of first switches and a second group of first switches, the first group of first switches being controlled by a first sampling pulse simultaneously, the second group of the first switches being controlled by a second sampling pulse simultaneously, each of the switches of the first group not being adjacent to each other". As the specification first filed does not have support for the newly claim recitation as to each of the switches of the first group not being adjacent to each other.

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims.

Therefore, (1) the recitation of claim 45 "a first data line driving circuit inputting a plurality of analog signals to the plurality of pixel transistors via the plurality of data lines; and a second data line driving circuit providing a plurality of digital signals to the plurality of data lines".

(2) The recitation of claim 54 "a second data line driving circuit providing a plurality of second signals to the plurality of data lines, the first data line driving circuit having a different function from a function of the second data line driving circuit".

(3) The claim limitation of 64 “where the plurality of first switches includes a first group of first switches and a second group of first switches, the first group of first switches being controlled by a first sampling pulse simultaneously, the second group of the first switches being controlled by a second sampling pulse simultaneously, each of the switches of the first group not being adjacent to each other”, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
